Participation: The event involved 76 citizens, including 2 participants from the city of Taurisano, 4 participants from the city of Tiggiano (IT), 1 participant from the city of Nardò (IT), 4 participants from the city of Nicosia (CY), 1 participant from the city of Marseille (FR), 2 participants from the city of Bedekovcina (HR), 2 participants from the city of Vilnius (LT), 2 participants from the city of Beja (PT), 2 participants from the city of Novi Sad (RS), 2 participants from the city of Oswiecim (PL), 52 participants from the city of Cluj (RO), 2 participants from the city of Stádlec (CZ).

Location / Dates: The event took place in Cluj, Romania, from 22/02/2018 to 25/02/2018

Short description: The aim of the event was to officially launch the project and Zivi Miller's life which inspired it. The participants also discussed about Holocaust and Discrimination in Romania during the Second World War, with Dr. Zoltán Tibori Szabó, Babeş-Bolyai University, exchanging opinions, in an artistic way, on new and old ways of discrimination in Europe (against Gipsy, LGBT, migrants, ...). A street debate activity in one of the main squares of Cluj was implemented in order to involve the local community in the discussion about the Future of Europe.

Participation: The event involved 55 citizens, including 2 participants from the city of Taurisano, 5 participants from the city of Tiggiano (IT), 1 participant from the city of Nardò (IT), 4 participants from the city of Nicosia (CY), 1 participant from the city of Marseille (FR), 2 participants from the city of Bedekovcina (HR), 2 participants from the city of Vilnius (LT), 2 participants from the city of Beja (PT), 2 participants from the city of Novi Sad (RS), 20 participants from the city of Oswiecim (PL), 2 participants from the city of Cluj (RO), 2 participants from the city of Stádlec (CZ).

Location / Dates: The event took place in Krakow, Poland, from 11/05/2018 to 14/05/2018

Short description: The aim of the event was to give the participants the opportunity to discussing about crimes against humanity, visiting some historical sites (Auschwitz Birkenau Concentration Camps and Schindler's factory), commemorating the victims of Nazism and involving the local community in a street debate activity. The topic was strictly connected to the aim of the event: "Have you ever fought for your rights?”, and it was held in one of the most important market squares in Krakow, so as to have the biggest impact possible.

Participation: The event involved 53 citizens, including 3 participants from the city of Taurisano (IT), 32 participants from the city of Tiggiano (IT), 1 participant from the city of Nardò (IT), 5 participants from the city of Nicosia (CY), 1 participant from the city of Marseille (FR), 1 participant from the city of Paris (FR), 2 participants from the city of Vilnius (LT), 2 participants from the city of Beja (PT), 2 participants from the city of Novi Sad (RS), 2 participants from the city of Oswiecim (PL), 2 participants from the city of Cluj (RO).

Location / Dates: The event took place in Tiggiano, Italy, from 12/10/2018 to 15/10/2018

Short description: The aim of the event was to present the situation of migrants in Europe, especially refugees and asylum seekers together with national and local best practices for their integration and inclusion. The participants visited the “Museo dell’Accoglienza” in Nardò, where the murals of Zivi Miller are still collected and they had the chance to better understand Jewish feelings during the Nazism period. What is more, thanks to a street debate activity implemented in the main square in Lecce, many passers-by were involved in the discussion about the Future of Europe, from the “inclusion of diversities” point of view.
